The enormous crowds daily flocking to our neighborhood is a proof that something unusual has happened—and that Lower Broadway is still the favorite resort of shoppers.

SIXTH AVENUE 18th & 19th STS.

NEW YORK.

THE BIG STORE.

Visitors to New York will find "The Big Store" one of the sights of the city, and well worth a visit.

Merchandise amounting to $5.00 or over, fully paid for at the time of purchase, will be sent by freight, free of charge, to any railroad station within 100 shipping miles of New York.

Wise Christmas Shoppers

Will Do Two Things.

THEY WILL for many reasons surely BUY their holiday goods FROM "THE BIG STORE," because here they will find a greater variety to select from than can be secured in any other two stores in New York City. On account of the many stairways and large elevators and broad aisles, shopping here is more pleasant than elsewhere. Lastly, but not least, every item in "The Big Store" will be found marked as low, and in most cases lower, than similar goods can be purchased anywhere else in all New York City.

FANCY SETS

Of all kinds, in plain or handsomely finished cases. Work sets, toilet sets, manure sets, smokers' sets, etc., etc. All those useful and ornamental combinations that are such acceptable holiday gifts will be found here at much less than the usual retail price.

UMBRELLAS

The department is located on the main floor, west of the elevator circle, and an inspection of the goods carried in stock will show how easily a suitable Christmas present can be secured here. Every quality, variety, and make, and every proper design of stick can be shown here.

LEATHER GOODS

Such as Pocketbooks, Chatelaine Bags, Belts, Fancy Cases of all description, are shown in our great leather goods stock on the main floor. Here are perhaps a thousand varieties for you to select from.

USEFUL

Christmas presents can be found in every department of this great store. The furniture, the cloaks, the millinery, the dress goods and silks, the shoes, the clothing, the hat, the men's furnishing, the underwear, and many other stocks show a superb line of goods which are particularly adapted to holiday use.

TOYS

A larger part of the entire second floor is devoted to toys of every known description. Those who have seen the display readily acknowledge that it is perhaps twice as great as that shown by any other store in New York.

DOLLS

More of them and finer dolls for less money than any other store in America. Bring the children to see Santa Claus in his little house, rear of second floor.

BOOKS

Occupies about one-seventh of the main floor and contains more volumes than any other book store in the city of New York. Here you can buy all the popular Christmas books, in many cases at one-half the publisher's price.

PICTURES

Of every style, size and kind, from Sargent's photographs of celebrities at 10c, each up to the finest etchings and oil paintings. Our art gallery is worth a visit, whether you wish to buy or not.

HANDKERCHIEFS

Are sold on the main floor around the fountain, and here you will find a larger stock of plain, fancy, initial, linen or silk handkerchiefs than is displayed elsewhere to-day in this city. Shrewd holiday shoppers have already found out that this is handkerchief headquarters not only for quality, but for unprecedented low prices as well.

JEWELRY

and Silverware in the greatest jewelry and silverware department of New York. Located on the main floor south of 6th avenue entrance, and containing a more complete stock of jewelry and silverware than can be found in any two other general stores in New York city.

MANDOLINS

Violins, guitars, banjos, music boxes, and musical instruments of every kind are sold at "The Big Store" far less than can be secured anywhere else. There is nothing so nice for a Christmas present as a musical instrument or a collection of sheet music.

EATABLES

For holiday times are also found in profusion at "The Big Store." Nuts, candy, oranges, bananas, lemons, cake, and all those other good things that are indispensable at Christmas time, you will find them here for less price than elsewhere.
